

THE CLIFFORD DALE WUNSCH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Clifford Dale Wunsch Memorial Scholarship was established as an on-going memorial and tribute to Clifford Dale Wunsch, who passed away in March of 2003.

Cliff was well known and respected in the agricultural industry throughout the country, having been involved in agriculture since his early childhood. After working on the family farm, Cliff began his agricultural career as a custom harvester for wheat growers in the Midwest.

Cliff then pursued a career in the agricultural equipment business, working as a sales manager for Sperry New Holland in Chandler, Arizona and then Tulare, California. Cliff was transferred to Stockton, California in 1972, after being promoted to store manager. Cliff started the first New Holland store in Stockton on Navy Drive and then spearheaded the move to their former location on West Charter Way.

In 1979, Cliff established his own business in Stockton called Big W Sales. This new endeavor brought Cliff into the fertilizer and spray application business. Under Cliff's direction, Big W Sales expanded their operations to include retail facilities in Salinas and Fresno, California and Yuma, Arizona in addition to a large-scale trailer manufacturing facility in Stockton, California. Today, Big W Sales has become one of the leading distributors of fertilizer and spray application equipment and accessories in the country.

Throughout the years, Cliff was a strong supporter of the agricultural community. As chairman of the Greater Stockton Chamber of Commerce agri-business project committee, Cliff was instrumental with helping start the Stockton Ag Expo in 1975. Cliff was also a strong supporter of 4-H, donating his time and resources to the local 4-H program for several years.

Cliff was an active member of Lincoln Presbyterian Church for over thirty years.

As an on-going tribute, the Wunsch family has established this memorial scholarship to honor the life of Clifford Dale Wunsch. The scholarships to be provided in 2022, represent the 18th year the Wunsch Family has awarded scholarships to outstanding students in the field of agriculture.

THE CLIFFORD DALE WUNSCH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

As an on-going memorial and tribute to Clifford Dale Wunsch, the Wunsch family has established the Clifford Dale Wunsch Memorial Scholarship for the purpose of providing financial assistance to students who seek a career in the agriculture industry. Two $2,500.00 scholarships will be awarded annually.

Under the guidance and participation of the Wunsch family, the Clifford Dale Wunsch Memorial Scholarship is administered by the SJFB Foundation for Agricultural Education, a non-profit educational organization.
