

San Joaquin Farm Bureau Young Farmers & Ranchers 2023-2024 Scholarship

The San Joaquin Young Farmers & Ranchers will fund a minimum of $2,500 in scholarships for the 2023-2024 school year. High school and college student applications will be reviewed separately; a minimum of one scholarship will be awarded to a high school student and a minimum of one scholarship will be awarded to a college student. The purpose of this scholarship is not only to reward those who have demonstrated a commitment to agriculture, but also to secure a viable future for the agriculture industry by funding the education of tomorrow's leaders.

Farm Bureau Young Farmers and Ranchers are active agriculturists like you--between the ages of 18 and 35 and involved in production, banking, business, and many other areas of the industry. Young Farmers and Ranchers develop leadership skills while volunteering time as active, vital members of Farm Bureau.

Eligibility and Application Requirements

- Application and supporting documents must be postmarked or physically delivered to the San Joaquin Farm Bureau Federation office no later than the close of business on Friday, February 24, 2023 by 4 pm.
Mail / Deliver to: 3290 N. Ad Art Road, Stockton, CA 95215
- Applicants must be entering or attending an accredited junior college or four-year University, enrolled in an undergraduate program and major area of study must be agriculture or related field.
- Do not enclose any material other than the materials that have been requested.
- Print or type legibly.
- Official transcripts must accompany each application. If you are a Freshman in college, please also include your high school transcript.
- Each application packet must be complete and submitted in its own individual envelope.
- Finalists will be subject to an in-person or Zoom interview at a date to be determined.

Selection Criteria

The following will be given consideration when selecting a recipient. However, the criteria are considered cumulatively and should not be regarded as individual requirements.

- Demonstrated qualities: career goals, scholastic achievement, determination to succeed, leadership, desire to obtain a higher education, commitment to agriculture.
- Difficulty and achievement level of academic courses.
- Future plans for involvement in the agriculture industry.

Presentation of Award / Distribution of Funds

Recipients will be presented a certificate recognizing the award at the SJFB's 109th Annual Meeting to be held on a date to be determined.

Upon receipt of a certified document reflecting the recipient's enrollment as a full-time student in an accredited junior college or four-year university, the scholarship will be funded directly to the recipient. This documentation must be submitted by the college or university; unofficial copies submitted by the recipient will not be accepted. In addition, San Joaquin Young Farmers & Ranchers will process and pay for one year of Collegiate Farm Bureau membership for each recipient.

Failure to enroll in a junior college or four-year university in the fall of 2023 may result in forfeiture of the award.
